

More networked NHS PCs and study spaces are available for all LTHT Staff in the :

BEXLEY LIBRARY STUDY CENTRE 🔍

Level 7 Bexley Wing. Accessible 24/7 with an LTHT staff access card (old style-Salto card)

How to find the study centre:

From Bexley Wing entrance

(opposite multi storey car park)

1. You will enter on level 0
2. Use the lifts beyond the Reception Desk and to the left.
3. Take lift to Level 7. See step 4.

From the Beckett Street entrance

1. You will enter the building on Level -2
2. Walk up 2 flights of stairs to Level 0. Walk straight ahead through the lobby area until you see a large Reception Desk in front of you. The lifts are on the right.
3. Take lift to Level 7. See step 4

From Level 7

4. Turn right on leaving the lift and go through two lots of double doors (follow signs for 'Cookridge Conference Centre') and turn right.
5. The library study centre is at the end of the corridor, past the kitchen area. Computers in the IT suite to the right of the study centre entrance can also be used if the room is not booked.

Both rooms can be accessed 24/7 via access card (old style 'Salto' access card that has two black bars on the back). If you do not have this style of card, you can request one via the intranet page:

Estates and Facilities > Access cards, door locks and keys

